Re: Biennial Agency Conflict of Interest Code Review

Dear Ian Gow / Eric Sprouse/ Patrice Metz:

The Political Reform Act requires every local government agency to review its Conflict of Interest Code every two (2) years to determine if it complies with current law, accurately depicts the appropriate list of designated employees and the appropriate disclosure level, and clearly indicates the agency filing officer. If the code does not adequately address these requirements, then the code must be amended. Each local agency within the County must submit to the County Board of Supervisors a Biennial Notice indicating whether or not an amendment is necessary. Enclosed is the notice from the California Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) regarding this requirement, along with the 2018 Local Agency Biennial Notice. The FPPC offers an online workshop for agencies on this topic that is highly recommended.

Please note that, as required by law, we will be reviewing mainly for three elements in your Codes and Appendices:

- 1) Designation of Filing Officer;
- 2) Designation of Employees; and
- 3) Degree of disclosure required for each employee position.

If these three elements are not clearly designated in your Conflict of Interest Code or Appendix, we will be asking you to amend them accordingly.

You are hereby notified that you are to review your Conflict of Interest Code and submit the enclosed Biennial Notice indicating that either amendments are required or no amendments are necessary, along with a copy of your code to this office by August 1, 2018. The Biennial Notice is available as a fillable form at www.fppc.ca.gov. You may fill out the Biennial Notice online and submit, along with your Conflict of Interest form, electronically to CountyCounsel@placer.ca.gov.

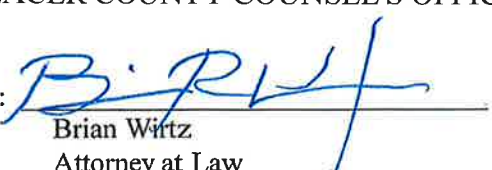

It would be most helpful if you returned the notice and your code as soon as possible to enable this office to do its work in the most efficient manner possible.

Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

2018 Conflict of Interest Code Biennial Notice Instructions for Local Agencies

The Political Reform Act requires every local government agency to review its conflict of interest code biennially. A conflict of interest code tells public officials, governmental employees, and consultants what financial interests they must disclose on their Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700).

By July 2, 2018: The code reviewing body must notify agencies and special districts within its jurisdiction to review their conflict of interest codes.

By October 1, 2018: The biennial notice must be filed with the agency's code reviewing body.

The FPPC has prepared a 2018 Local Agency Biennial Notice form for local agencies to complete or send to agencies within its jurisdiction to complete before submitting to the code reviewing body. The City Council is the code reviewing body for city agencies. The County Board of Supervisors is the code reviewing body for county agencies and any other local government agency whose jurisdiction is determined to be solely within the county (e.g., school districts, including certain charter schools). The FPPC is the code reviewing body for any agency with jurisdiction in more than one county and will contact them.

The Local Agency Biennial Notice is not forwarded to the FPPC.

If amendments to an agency's conflict of interest code are necessary, the amended code must be forwarded to the code reviewing body for approval within 90 days. An agency's amended code is not effective until it has been approved by the code reviewing body.

If you answer yes, to any of the questions below, your agency's code probably needs to be amended.

- Is the current code more than five years old?
- Have there been any substantial changes to the agency's organizational structure since the last code was approved?
- Have any positions been eliminated or re-named since the last code was approved?
- Have any new positions been added since the last code was approved?
- Have there been any substantial changes in duties or responsibilities for any positions since the last code was approved?

If you have any questions or are still not sure if you should amend your agency's conflict of interest code, please contact the FPPC. Additional information including an online webinar regarding how to amend a conflict of interest code are available on FPPC's website here.
